

SMARTHINKING Announces New Subject Material And Extended Hours Of Service

Online Tutorial Service Expands Availability And Subject Offerings

WASHINGTON, D.C. – SMARTHINKING, Inc. (www.smarthinking.com), the market leader in providing online tutoring and academic support to students, has announced the availability of tutoring in new subjects and extended hours of service for the fall 2008 semester. SMARTHINKING has extended hours for writing, general chemistry and physics tutoring to reach a larger audience with greater availability. Tutoring services for these subjects were formerly offered Sunday through Thursday from 12 p.m. to 2 a.m. and are now being extended Sunday through Thursday from 9 a.m. to 2 a.m. As always, tutoring services for basic math skills, algebra, geometry, trigonometry and calculus are available 24 hours a day, seven days a week.

The company has also developed a new package supporting advanced subjects which includes organic chemistry, math beyond calculus II, advanced statistics and finance. This new package is designed to provide campuses additional support in these areas of study. For more information on the company, visit www.smarthinking.com.
